CBSE/DIR (ACAD)/2021

Date: August 03, 2021
Circular No: ACAD-67/2021

All the Heads of Schools Affiliated to CBSE

Subject: - Introduction of Communicative Samskrit and Communicative English from 2022-23

Dear Principals,

In pursuance to recommendation of National Education Policy 2020 regarding availability of all subjects and corresponding assessments at two levels as per the needs and interest of students, CBSE is planning to offer English and Samskrit at two levels from the Academic year 2022-23 in class IX and subsequently in class X in the year 2023-24. The Board will offer communicative based curricula which CBSE used to offer in these languages till the year 2018 in these languages. As NEP stresses on using an approach to learning that highlights the importance of real life contexts and enabling students to apply their knowledge in real life scenarios, communicative approach to languages would certainly develop the student's competence to communicate in the target language (communicative competence), with an enhanced focus on real-life situations.

Schools interested to offer Communicative English and Communicative Samskrit are requested to fill the attached Google form so that availability of hard bound textbooks can be ensured in the market in addition to soft copies at the website of CBSE.
