Emotions I feel

I feel incredibly blessed to be able to be with my family during the lockdown period and have all my basic needs met. I feel worried about the present situation in the country as outside its a raging war against COVID-19 and the situation is not improving at the moment.

ANONYMOUS MAY 14, 2020 10:56AM

I feel bit nervous as it was first experience in virtual class. However, at the end I was happy after interacting with my students.
